

.2Ontario Veterans Community Service Excellence Award

Information for Nominators

Who can nominate:

- Nominations can be submitted by a designated representative from an Ontario branch of The Royal Canadian Legion.

Who are eligible to be nominated:

- Veterans who are residents of Ontario

Who should be nominated:

- Individual veterans who have demonstrated significant, sustained contributions to their community as demonstrated by exceptional community service. For example, but not restricted to:
 - Volunteerism with community or regional impact
 - Volunteerism with provincial impact (not mandatory).
- Nominations must detail how the veteran's continuous service led to positive impacts and contributed to improved outcomes in their community/area/region.
 - Please keep a record of why you selected this veteran highlighting their contributions and impacts to your community.
 - You may be asked by the Ministry of Citizenship and Multiculturalism for information about your nominee.

Submitting a nomination:

- Create a My Ontario Account or sign in for returning users
 - <https://www.ohap.haacms.mtc.gov.on.ca/en/signin>
- Choose Ontario Veterans Community Service Excellence Award from the list of honours and awards
- Enter this access code for 2025 nominations - ONvet-25
- Select the nominee's Ontario branch of The Royal Canadian Legion
- Enter the nominators information
- Confirm and submit the nomination

The nominee you select will be your recipient for this award.

Thank you for your participation in this meaningful recognition program for our veterans.

If you have any questions or require any assistance, please contact us at ontariohonoursandawards@ontario.ca