The Benefits of Membership in the Royal Canadian Legion

You don't have to be a Veteran to join the Legion! When you join the Legion, you support the many services we offer to Veterans, serving military, RCMP Members, and their families. To become a member of Canada's largest Veterans and community service organization, you must be 18 years of age or older, be a citizen of Canada, or a Commonwealth or NATO/Wartime Allied Country and agree to The Royal Canadian Legion Terms of Eligibility.

We are often asked, "What are the benefits of being a Member of the Royal Canadian Legion?" Membership in the Royal Canadian Legion:

- gives you the opportunity to support our Veterans, serving military and RCMP Members and their families
- provides support for Veterans – new and old
- gives you a chance to be part of your community on a local and national level
- offers many volunteer opportunities to help Veterans, your Branch and your community
- helps provide essential services within our community
- allows you to participate in the Veterans program
- gives you access to great savings and deals through our Member Benefits Package
- allows the Branch to support youth in the community through bursaries, public speaking and poster and poem contests
- allows the Branch to support local cadet and scout groups
- allows the Branch's Veteran Service Officer to help Veterans obtain benefits
- gives you the opportunity to meet new people and make friends within your community
- allows you to participate in Branch activities
- allows you to participate in Member-only sporting events such as darts, snooker, euchre, cribbage, bowling, curling

Members:

- Help the Legion provide essential services within our communities
